PSALM 107

My heart is ready, O God; ★
I will sing, sing your praise.
Awake, my soul; †
awake, lyre and harp. ★
I will awake the dawn.
I will thank you, Lord, among the peoples, ★
among the nations I will praise you,
for your love reaches to the heavens ★
and your truth to the skies.
O God, arise above the heavens; ★
may your glory shine on earth!
O come and deliver your friends; ★
help with your right hand and reply.
From his holy place God has made this promise: †
“I will triumph and divide the land of Shechem; ★
I will measure out the valley of Succoth.
Gilead is mine and Manasseh. †
Ephraim I take for my helmet, ★
Judah for my commander's staff. ★
Moab I will use for my washbowl, † on Edom I will plant my shoe. ★
Over the Philistines I will shout in triumph.”
But who will lead me to conquer the fortress? ★
Who will bring me face to face with Edom?
Will you utterly reject us, O God, ★
and no longer march with our armies?
Give us help against the foe: ★
for the help of man is vain.
With God we shall do bravely ★
and he will trample down our foes.
Glory to the Father, and to the Son, ★
and to the Holy Spirit:
as it was in the beginning, is now, ★
and will be for ever. Amen.

 You shall be a glorious crown in the hand of the Lord, ★
 a royal diadem held by your God.
 No more shall men call you "Forsaken," ★

LECTIO BREVIS

2 Cor 1:3-5

Praised be the God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all consolation! He comforts us in all our afflictions and thus enables us to comfort those who are in trouble, with the same consolation we have received from him. As we have shared much in the suffering of Christ, so through Christ do we share abundantly in his consolation.

Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel; he has come to his people and set them free. He has raised up for us a mighty savior, born of the house of his servant David. Through his holy prophets he promised of old that he would save us from our enemies, from the hands of all who hate us. He promised to show mercy to our fathers and to remember his holy covenant. This was the oath he swore to our father Abraham: to set us free from the hands of our enemies, free to worship him without fear, holy and righteous in his sight all the days of our life. You, my child, shall be called the prophet of the Most High; for you will go before the Lord to prepare his way, to give his people knowledge of salvation by the forgiveness of their sins. In the tender compassion of our God the dawn from on high shall break upon us, to shine on those who dwell in darkness and the shadow of death, and to guide our feet into the way of peace. Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

PRECES

Our Savior's faithfulness is mirrored in the fidelity of his witnesses who shed their blood for the Word of God. Let us praise him in remembrance of them: You redeemed us by your blood.

℟. You redeemed us by your blood.

Your martyrs freely embraced death in bearing witness for the faith, – give us the true freedom of the Spirit, O Lord. Y ℟. ou redeemed us by your blood.

Your martyrs professed their faith by shedding their blood, – give us a faith, O Lord, that is constant and pure.

℟. You redeemed us by your blood.

Your martyrs followed in your footsteps by carrying the cross, – help us to endure courageously the misfortunes of life.

℟. You redeemed us by your blood.

Your martyrs washed their garments in the blood of the Lamb, – help us to avoid the weaknesses of the flesh and worldly allurements.

ORATIO CONCLUSIVA

O God, who called the Bishop Saint Irenaeus to confirm true doctrine and the peace of the Church, grant, we pray, through his intercession, that, being renewed in faith and charity, we may always be intent on fostering unity and concord. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

℟. Amen.
