HYMNUS

Pange lingua gloriosi, Corporis

III

ing my tongue the Sacred Myst'ry, ★ Of the glorious bo-dy made, Of the precious blood outpouring— Both the fruit of noble maid— By the King of all the nations For the world's re-demption paid. 2. Giv'n for us, to us descending, Born of virgin chaste was he, And on earth by life and teaching Spread the truth to make us free; Then with sacred cel-e-bration Closed his life most wondrously. 3. On the night of that last supper Seated with his brethren band, He observed the law most ful-ly And the feast it did command; Then, as food to his apostles, Gives himself with his own hand. 4. Word made Flesh, true bread he changes By a word, his flesh to be; Wine to blood of Christ transforming, Though the eye no change may see; Faith alone provides assurance, If the heart sin-cere should be. 5. Humbly then in ven-e-ration This great Myst'ry we adore: For the ancient rite surrenders To the new for ev-ermore:

Faith divine supplies a-bundance Where frail senses cannot soar.

6. Honor, praise and ex-al-tation To the Father and the Son, Power, too, and joy and blessing And sal-vation for all won; To the One from both proceeding, Be an equal worship done. A-men.

LECTIO BREVIS

1 Cor 11:23-24

I received from the Lord what I handed on to you, namely, that the Lord Jesus on the night in which he was betrayed took bread, and after he had given thanks, broke it and said, "This is my body, which is for you. Do this in remembrance of me." In the same way, after the supper, he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me."

My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord, my spirit rejoices in God my Savior for he has looked with favor on his lowly servant. From this day all generations will call me blessed: the Almighty has done great things for me, and holy is his Name. He has mercy on those who fear him in every generation. He has shown the strength of his arm, he has scattered the proud in their conceit. He has cast down the mighty from their thrones, and has lifted up the lowly. He has filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he has sent away empty. He has come to the help of his servant Israel for he has remembered his promise of mercy, the promise he made to our fathers, to Abraham and his children for ever. Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

PRECES

Christ invites all to the supper in which he gives his body and blood for the life of the world. Let us ask him: Christ, the bread of heaven, grant us everlasting life.

℟. Christ, the bread of heaven, grant us everlasting life.

Christ, Son of the living God, you commanded that this thanksgiving meal be done in memory of you, – enrich your Church through the faithful celebration of these mysteries.

℟. Christ, the bread of heaven, grant us everlasting life.

Christ, eternal priest of the Most High, you have commanded your priests to offer your sacraments, – may they help them to exemplify in their lives the meaning of the sacred mysteries which they celebrate.

℟. Christ, the bread of heaven, grant us everlasting life.

Christ, bread from heaven, you form one body out of all who partake of the one bread, – refresh all who believe in you with harmony and peace.

℟. Christ, the bread of heaven, grant us everlasting life.

Christ, through your bread you offer the remedy for immortality and the pledge of future resurrection, – restore health to the sick and living hope to sinners.

℟. Christ, the bread of heaven, grant us everlasting life.

Christ, our king who is to come, you commanded the mysteries which proclaim your death to be celebrated until you return, – grant that all who die in you may share in your resurrection.

℟. Christ, the bread of heaven, grant us everlasting life.
