After the Glory to the Father, the whole antiphon is repeated.

LECTIO BREVIS

Rom 8:16-17

The Spirit himself gives witness with our spirit that we are children of God. But if we are children, we are heirs as well: heirs of God, heirs with Christ, if only we suffer with him so as to be glorified with him.

My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord, my spirit rejoices in God my Savior for he has looked with favor on his lowly servant. From this day all generations will call me blessed: the Almighty has done great things for me, and holy is his Name. He has mercy on those who fear him in every generation. He has shown the strength of his arm, he has scattered the proud in their conceit. He has cast down the mighty from their thrones, and has lifted up the lowly. He has filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he has sent away empty. He has come to the help of his servant Israel for he has remembered his promise of mercy, the promise he made to our fathers, to Abraham and his children for ever. Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

PRECES

In the presence of his disciples our Savior was wonderfully transfigured on Mount Tabor. Let us pray to him with confidence: Lord, in your light may we see light.

R. Lord, in your light may we see light.

O Christ, before your passion and death you revealed the resurrection to your disciples on Mount Tabor; we pray for your Church which labors amid the cares and anxieties of this world, – that in its trials it may always be transfigured by the joy of your victory.

R. Lord, in your light may we see light.

O Christ, you took Peter, James and John and led them up a high mountain by themselves; we pray for our pope and bishops, – that they may inspire in your people the hope of being transfigured at the last day.

R. Lord, in your light may we see light.

O Christ, upon the mountaintop you let the light of your face shine over Moses and Elijah, – we ask your blessing upon the Jewish people; of old you called them to be your chosen nation.

R. Lord, in your light may we see light.

O Christ, you gave light to the world when the glory of the Creator arose over you, – we pray for men of good will that they may walk in your light.

R. Lord, in your light may we see light.

O Christ, you will reform our lowly body and make it like your glorious one, – we pray for our brothers and sisters who have died that they may share in your glory for ever.

R. Lord, in your light may we see light.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

ORATIO CONCLUSIVA

O God, who called the Bishop Saint Irenaeus to confirm true doctrine and the peace of the Church, grant, we pray, through his intercession, that, being renewed in faith and charity, we may always be intent on fostering unity and concord. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

℟. Amen.

RITUS CONCLUSIONIS
